- (a) Nonpayment of any sum due for service provided hereunder, where Customer's charges remain unpaid more than ten (10) days following

4.7 Billing Disputes

In the event Customer disputes any charges billed by the Company, Customer may withhold from payment to the Company the disputed portion of any billing pending resolution of the dispute, provided Customer submits to the Company an itemized statement in writing which identifies the disputed charges and reasonably explains the basis of the dispute. Customer's explanation must be received by the Company within thirty (30) days of the bill date of the disputed bill. The Company shall resolve the dispute, within thirty (30) days of receipt of Customer's explanation of whether any billing adjustment should be made into Customer's account. In making such determination the Company will consider all relevant and credible information provided by Customer as well as any other information reasonably available to the Company. The burden of proof to establish any right to billing adjustments in the customer's favor shall be solely upon the Customer.

In the event Customer does not agree with the initial determination by the Company relating to amounts in dispute and adjustments, if any, which the Company may agree to make, Customer shall so advise the Company and within ten (10) days following the Company's initial determination shall submit to the Company any additional information which Customer deems pertinent or relevant to the dispute. Within twenty (20) days of the Company's receipt of additional information, the Company shall make its final determination based upon all documentation or information available to the Company. In the event the Company lacks credible evidence to substantiate Customer's position after a reasonable review of and consideration of such information available, the Company shall notify Customer and, if the Company determines that all or any portion of such disputed amount is still owed, Customer shall be required to tender payment of such amount within ten (10) days thereafter. If Customer withholds the disputed amount thereafter, or within the time required, fails to provide supporting information in writing which sets out a legitimate basis under the terms and conditions herein for disputing any charges, Customer's account shall be deemed to be past due and unpaid. In such event, the Company shall be entitled to deny Customer's service immediately and/or require an additional deposit.

If the billing dispute is resolved in favor of the Company, any payments withheld pending resolution of the dispute may be subject to a late payment fee of 1.7 percent per month for the period during which such charges remain unpaid.

If notice of a dispute with respect to charge is not received, in writing, within 15 days after an invoice is rendered, such invoice shall be deemed to be correct and binding upon the Customer. In instances of a dispute, the Customer is required to pay the undisputed portion of the bill in its entirety. Accounts not paid within 15 days from the due date stated on the bill will be considered delinquent.

If a customer has undisputed delinquent charges, the Company reserves the right not to honor that Customer's request for a change in any service and the Company reserves the right not to honor that Customer's request for a change in the responsible party for the account until such undisputed charges are paid in full.

4.8 Right to Back Bill for Improper use of the Company's Services

Any person or entity which uses, appropriates or secures the use of services from the Company, whether directly or indirectly, in any unlawful manner or through the providing of any misleading or false information to the Company and which use, appropriation, or securing of services is inconsistent with the stated uses, intents, and purposes of these terms and conditions or any restrictions, conditions, and limitations stated herein, shall be liable for an amount equal to the accrued and unpaid charges that would have been applicable to the use of the Company's services actually made by Customer.
